THE PROGRAM

The Rotary Club of Essex Annual Shad Bake. This is the quintessential New England shoreline tradition. Yankee Magazine has called it one of the "Top 20 Summer Events."

450 diners and many other spectators will attend the Shad Bake on Saturday, June 6. For shad lovers, the lure is the secret ingredients and the authentic open fire method of preparation and cooking handed down by Connecticut natives. Added to this delicacy is homemade potato salad, tossed green salad, and pie from Lyman Orchards.

During the event, there will be live music overlooking the majestic Connecticut River, it is the perfect way to kick-off summer.

YOUR SUPPORT

As a sponsor of the Essex Annual Shad Bake, your support will help to sustain the many programs and activities provided by the Rotary Club of Essex. Each year the Rotary Club of Essex gives thousands of dollars to worthy community charities and causes.

By being a sponsor, you help build visibility for your business through a variety of benefit options. With a broad audience, significant marketing activities in a number of media outlets, and the combined resources, sponsorship adds up. Best yet, your donation is tax deductible to the extent allowed by law.
